

From the creators of Lightchasers comes an extraordinary new film...

...in this market
mothers are the highest bidders...

Three Mothers is a short drama. It follows the journey of two newly born girls as they change hands and intercept the lives of three women. The local black market for illegal adoption is the backdrop for this story.

synopsis

Martha is a 53 years old single mother. Her son has been in coma for 13 years. She decides to buy a baby girl and to love her boundlessly. Colleen is 35 and is boundlessly in love with her newly born baby girl. She fears most the thought of loosing her. Nathalie is 17 and does not love her baby. She wishes her daughter was never born and devises to drown her. These are the three mothers and their stories. They are linked by two baby girls whose lives depend on their choices.

Three Mothers (35mm/15min)

Writer and Director
Rafal Sokolowski

Producer
Daniel Bekerman

Director of Photography
Samy Inayah

Editor
Jordan Krug

Composer
Ivo Paunov

The primary photography in Toronto:
October 2008

The release date: March 2009.

The film is made with the support of the Canada Council for the Arts and the Ontario Arts Council. We are currently looking for partners and co-producers to join Blind Dog Films. We welcome international co-productions.

For further information on the film and how to partner with Blind Dog Films please contact us at:
info@blinddogfilms.ca